

TRANSFER OF A RACEHORSE

|----------------------------------|
| FEE – NSW $100 QLD $100 |
| WA $100 TAS $103 |
| VIC $110 SA $110 |
| NT $110 |

GENERAL INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

- The Rules of Racing make it compulsory for all transfers of ownership to be recorded in respect of registered racehorses.
A Transfer of Ownership is not official until approved and signed by the Registrar of Racehorses or the Deputy Registrar of the Principal Racing Authority in whose area the horse is to race.
- The first named person appearing in the New Ownership section shall be recorded as the Racing Manager and all correspondence shall be sent to that person unless otherwise stated.
- The auctioneer acts as an agent of the owners and has the authority to sign the contract of sale. The Transfer Form documents the sale. As such, the auctioneer has the authority to sign the Transfer Form.
- Except in the case of an auctioneer signing this form, if any transfer is being signed under Power of Attorney or Letter of Authority, a copy of such authority must be provided when lodging the transfer.

EFT / GST DETAILS

- If your horse interests are registered under GST Legislation, you are required to provide the applicable ABN (Australian Business Number) so that prizemoney payments can be grossed up with the GST portion. Each person or entity that is GST registered should nominate the applicable ABN.
- In the case of Syndicate members who are GST registered, GST details cannot be specified – the Syndicate must be registered for GST.
- If the first named owner/entity (manager) provides bank account details, total prizemoney payment can be made direct to the nominated bank account.
- In NSW only, prizemoney payments can be made to individual owners/entities when all owners/entities provide bank account details.

Where the owner is GST registered, the following agreement is given:

- The recipient may issue tax invoices in respect of the specified supplies
- The supplier will not issue tax invoices in respect of those supplies
- The supplier acknowledges that it is registered when it enters into the agreement & that it will notify the recipient if it ceases to be registered
- The recipient acknowledges that it is registered when it enters into the agreement & that it will notify the supplier if it ceases to be registered

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- In the past ten years, have you been convicted of, or is there a pending charge against you, for any offence involving: (a) Violence against a person; or (b) Dishonest or criminal activity
- Have you ever been convicted under the Australian Rules of Racing or rules of any racing authority?

If any applicant should answer “yes” to any of these questions, the applicant must notify the Registrar in writing prior to the lodgement of the application. Such notification must include full details of the conduct in question. The Registrar will advise in writing of having received such notification. That advice should be retained by the applicant as evidence that the appropriate notification has been made. You are advised that should it be established that an individual has neglected or failed to truthfully respond to questions 1(a), 1(b) or 2, this application and any other application concerning the individual may be refused or cancelled at any time. If the notification has previously been advised to the Registrar, there is no need to do so again.

The Committee of any Club or the Stewards may punish any person who makes any false or misleading statement or declaration in respect of any matter in connection with the administration or control of racing under AR175(gg). Inaccuracies or omissions may also lead to penalties or cancellation of the Registration of this horse (AR17).

PRIVACY STATEMENT

The Registrar of Racehorses collects information about you when you submit this application to register a racehorse. The Registrar will use that information to assess your application and if approved, your ongoing status as an owner. To do that, the Registrar may disclose your information to other racing bodies. On occasion, the Registrar may disclose names and contact details to racing organisations including race clubs and owners or breeders associations. However, this information will only be disclosed where the Registrar is of the opinion that such communication may be of interest or benefit to you. If you do not want to receive such communication, you may advise the Registrar of that fact at any time. You can gain access to and request changes be made to your information held by the Registrar at any time.

You do not have to supply the information requested, but if the information is not provided the Registrar may refuse to accept your application.

Note: You are not required to send the horses identification card or passbook with the application – it should remain with the horse.

Syndicates

Any combination of more than 10 owner entities must be registered as a syndicate with a principal racing authority. The name of the registered syndicate must be shown on the application and be signed by the Manager. Whilst it is quite in order for a horse to be registered in the ownership of a company, firm or stud (as defined in AR1) it cannot race in such ownership unless the company, firm or stud has been registered as a syndicate under the Australian Rules of Racing or the horse is leased to individuals. Each registered syndicate entering the ownership of this horse MUST complete the below and pay the subscribed fee.
