

Media Accreditation Rules and Regulations

I _____ of _____ (Name) (Company)

hereby agree to the following Queensland Racing Limited Media Accreditation Rules and Regulations.

General

- Accreditation is personalised, and therefore, is non-transferable.
- Media accreditation passes must be displayed at all times.
- The accredited individual is responsible for complying with the Workplace, Health & Safety rules set out by the respected Club.
- Please observe pre-booked workstations and telephone lines in the Press Room.

Betting Ring Areas

- TV/film crews and photographers may only film or photograph general atmosphere shots of the betting ring. No filming of individuals transacting wagers is allowed unless their expressed permission.

Photographers

- Photographers must be respectful of Members in Reserved Enclosures and seek permission to take photographs.
- Photographers must be considerate of all racegoers when gaining the best photographic position.
- Photographers must not obstruct the view of on course photographer and cameraman.
- Photographers must not attempt to sell photographs in any form to the connections (owners, trainers, jockeys, strappers etc.) of any winning horse at such race meetings.
- Photographers must direct any enquiries from connections to the contracted course photographer at the particular race course.

Saddling Enclosure

- The Saddling Enclosure is an area designed specifically for trainers, horses, jockeys and connections, prior to and after races, and course officials. Media are privileged to have access to this area and should abide by the rules accordingly. For the safety and security of all concerned, numbers in the Saddling Enclosure are strictly limited.

- Saddling Enclosure access is only available to approved working journalists and photographers.
- Mobile telephones may not be turned on or used in the Saddling Enclosure or in Scales Area without the permission of the Chief Steward.

Dress Code

- Media must adhere to the dress codes for the Saddling Enclosure and Members' Enclosure, set out by the Club.

Breach of Media Accreditation

- All accredited media and photographers must obey directions given to them by Queensland Racing and Club Officials and Security staff.
- Failure to abide by these rules may result in cancellation of accreditation.
